

GEORGE J. KNIETSCH

1899—Born on farm at Anthonston, Henderson County, Ky., of Belgian and American parentage.

1905-1908—Attended a village school.

1908-1909—Attended Henderson high school; working vacations in department store at $0.00 per week.

1909-1909—Employed in manufacturing plant, taking night business course in connection with course from T. C. S.

1909—Married Miss Beulah W. Kieldner of Henderson, Ky.

1910—Returned employer of Independent 5 and 10c stores at Evansville, Ind., in stock room at $10.00 per week. Six months later transferred to Davenport, Ia., at $12.00.

1911—Sent to Adrian, Mich., to manage small store and in six months sold out and transferred to Evansville, O.

1912—Sent to Canton, O., to manage store and in four months was sent back to Evansville, Ind., to manage store where I first learned the business.

1912-1915—Made change from Independent 5 and 10c stores and went with S. S. Krueger Co. at Evansville, Ind.—the most wonderful change of all. It was there that I really had an idea what the 5 and 10c game was like and what it really meant to be with a real company.

1917—First store at No. 121, Lincoln, Ill., and trip to Detroit office.

1919-1920—Manager of No. 10.
